PUBLISHERS' NOTE

So many complaints reach us of delay in issuing the General Minutes that we are constrained once for all to offer a word of explanation in order that the blame for this matter may rest upon those to whom it belongs. Our obligation to publish the General Minutes is no greater than that of the officials of Conferences to furnish us with the matter in the form and manner required by the Discipline for publication in these Minutes. The editor of the General Minutes assures us that, with the exception of the minutes of four Conferences which had not been received on July 15, the General Minutes of the Spring Conferences were ready for publication on that date. During the month of August some of the belated returns were received, for example, the printed Minutes of the Central Provinces Mission Conference, which was held January 27-February 1, 1905. No returns of the Philippine Islands Mission Conference, held March 11-15, 1905, have reached us up to this date, September 1. Late in August the Missionary Society received a copy of the printed Minutes thereof, which we happened to see and borrowed; otherwise, the minutes of this Conference would not have appeared in this volume. The Hinghua Mission Conference was held November 9, 1904, and the minutes thereof should easily have reached us in time for the General Minutes of the Fall Conferences of that year. The fact is, however, that up to this date, September 1, 1905, neither the appointments nor the statistics have been received; accordingly, the minutes of this Conference must await the publication of the Fall Minutes for 1905, say in April, 1906. We are compelled to wait for the printed Minutes of nearly all our foreign Conferences, the nine Conferences in Continental Europe excepted, and in some instances we are entirely overlooked, as above cited, in the distribution of even these records. The failure to furnish us with statistics as required by the Discipline for 1904, page 69, ¶ 84, note 3, on the blanks ordered for that purpose by the General Conference and furnished by us, is coming to be a serious matter, and we publish this note with the hope that it may be heeded by delinquent statistical secretaries.

Bishop Isaac Wilson Joyce, D.D., LL.D.

Of the sixty-four men who have been elevated to the episcopacy by the Methodist Episcopal Church, Bishop Joyce was the fortieth. He is survived by ten of the thirty-nine whose election antedated his own, two of whom, however, were chosen together with himself by the General Conference of 1888. Five Bishops were chosen at that session of the General Conference, of which number Bishop Joyce was the third in the order of election.

Bishop Joyce was born in Coleraine Township, Ohio, October 11, 1836, and died in Minneapolis, Minnesota, July 28, 1905, thereby practically realizing the fruition of days mentioned by the psalmist, "The days of our years are threescore years and ten." He was educated in Hartsville College, and received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from Dickinson College, and that of Doctor of Laws from the University of the Pacific. His conversion occurred in 1852, and he was admitted on trial in the Northwest Indiana Conference in 1859. During the succeeding twenty-nine years his relation to the church was that of a pastor, with the exception of one year, when he was a supernumerary, and one term—four years—which he spent as Presiding Elder of East Lafayette District, Northwest Indiana Conference. In 1880, after having served a number of charges as pastor, he was transferred to the Cincinnati Conference, and served Saint Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church, Cincinnati, as pastor for three years. His next charge was Trinity, which he served for three years, at the expiration of which term he was again appointed to Saint Paul's, and it was during this pastoral term that he was elected to the episcopal office.

"The necessities of the episcopacy made a great world-traveler of Bishop Joyce. During 1892 he was intrusted with episcopal supervision of our work in Europe, and held all our Annual Conferences and the meetings of our Missions in Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Finland, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, and Bulgaria. Three years later he made the episcopal visitation to Mexico, presiding in the Annual Conference in January, 1895. He also had episcopal supervision of our Missions in China, Japan, and Korea in both 1896 and 1897. During his residence in those countries we constantly heard from returned missionaries of the kindly feeling which they all had toward Bishop Joyce, as the result of his brotherly manner and his evangelistic spirit. In order not to be mistaken in our estimate we propounded to Dr. Gamewell, now the Executive Secretary of the Open Door Emergency Commission, the question as to whether the popularity of Bishop Joyce in China was as great as was represented. He stated that the Bishop, while resting, was his guest in that country for the greater part of the time, that all had the highest respect for him and his work; and in answer to the question whether if he had been returned for two more years, or another year, or at any time, he would have been welcome, he responded that he would have been received with great delight. He also made two episcopal tours in South America, covering the years 1903 and 1904.

"Among his most important services was the presidency of the Epworth League for four years, 1900-1904."

Bishop Joyce was intensely evangelical; soul-saving was with him a passion. Not infrequently Conferences which he held were pervaded with pentecostal fervor, and the revival spirit begotten of his zeal for the sanctification of ministers and the conversion of the unsaved was transferred to the charges to the great edification of the church. In his removal the writer, together with multitudes of others, mourns the loss of a genial, warm, sympathetic personal friend.
